4 Days of Love, Romance and Everything Else

Wild Horses Lodge is a Sandstone villa facing the breathtaking expanse of the Sterkfontein Dam and the Platberg Mountains.

Kitchen, lounge, and bar area merge, and whichever room you choose to inhabit you are treated to the most magical view. The lounge and dining room share an expansive terrace and the private library, wine cellar, Koi pond, rim-flow pool, rose garden and indigenous garden complete the picture. The lodge is situated close to the Midlands Meander, Drakensberg Mountains and the Golden Gate route to Clarens. It is a place to celebrate special occasions such as birthdays, anniversaries, honeymoons or intimate gatherings.

The Wild Horses Dining Room offers a truly magnificent dining experience. Meals are served in the dinning room with its reeded ceilings and cosy fireplace or in the private wine cellar. Wake up to a delicious Continental breakfast and Chef's special breakfast. Laze over a light lunch and indulge in a gourmet 3-course dinner. Guests are able to select their own bottle of wine from the Lodge's private wine cellar which is continually being added to as the owner, Jon Hawkins, is an avid collector.
